

PRESS RELEASE

Certified Aviation Services receives over 30 FAA Training Awards

Ontario, California May 2008 – Certified Aviation Services' A&P Technicians have completed extensive training in 2007 qualifying individuals and stations for the FAA Certificate of Training and Certificate of Excellence awards.

CAS is proud to thank our A&P Technicians for their time, effort and dedication to quality service.

Service Stations Diamond Awards

Denver, Colorado * Las Vegas, Nevada * Phoenix, Arizona * Santa Ana, California

Ruby Certificate of Training Awards

Al Gratuito – LAS * Jeff Thomas – ANC * Kipper Countess – PHX *
Quinton Bates – LAS * Rick Arasmith – LAS

Gold Certificate of Training Awards

Anthony Saxton – PHX * Corey Tremper – SNA * Corwin McCurdy – PHX * Eduardo Rodriquez – LAS Fabio Natal – DEN * Jeff Schreiman – LAS * John Croasdell – DEN * Paul Watson - LAS
Robert Bradford – PHX * Rolando Rodriquez – LAS * Ronny Cabanilla – PHX* Scott Clark – ONT
Stephen Mraz – PHX * Toan Pham – SNA

Silver Certificate of Training Awards

Dave Shuck – DEN * H. Lee – DEN * Rick Zaw – SNA * Tom Heiney – DEN * Zach Bagdasarian – LAS

Bronze Certificate of Training Awards

Earnest Bowen – PHX * Johnny Isaac – PHX * William George – PHX

The FAA program is in recognition of the different levels of training A&P Technicians and service stations receive in a calendar year. Read more about the program at www.faa.gov.

With 18 years of experience, CAS is a world-class provider of line maintenance and aircraft modification services for commercial and military aircraft. CAS distinguishes itself by providing its customers with innovative, cost-effective maintenance solutions when and where they need it. Currently, CAS has 16 locations throughout the United States and holds a full 145 repair station license, servicing virtually every aircraft in operation. CAS provides line maintenance services in ANC, DEN, ELP, IAH, LAS, LAX, LGA, LGB, ONT, ORD, PDX, PHX, SBD, SEA, SFO and SNA. For more information about CAS, visit the CAS website at www.CertifiedAviation.com.