CAS Components Appoints Mrs. Singleton to Oversee Customer Service

Ontario, CA August 7, 2017 – CAS Components (a division of Certified Aviation Services, LLC), has appointed April Singleton as its Director of Customer Service. Mrs. Singleton joins CAS components from her most recent position at UTC Aerospace Systems where she held the title of Customer Support Team Leader. During that role, Mrs. Singleton had the responsibility of managing all of the customer support representatives. Mrs. Singleton brings over 15 years of exceptional customer service experience in the Aerospace Industry.

Brad Caban, President of CAS Components said, “We are all very excited about April joining our team. April brings with her great experience, the knowhow needed to enhance our customers experience with CAS with regard to component repair. April brings with her the desire and the tools necessary to take us to the next level of Customer Support.”
